

ॐ

Sri Krishnaa Vadya Vrindam 2012 Arangetram Tour

M.S Sukhi : Mridangam

Holding a post graduate diploma for Bharathanatyam from Kalakshetra, M.S.Sukhi is a versatile multi faceted artist of Mridangam, Nattuvangam and classical music. He is a disciple of Sri R.Ramesh in the Guru Karaikudi Mani style of Mridangam playing.He is an established Mridangam artist of merit and is known for his crisp rendering of rhythmic innovations and intricate, vibrant techniques in Mridangam playing. He has learnt Carnatic vocal from Vairamangalam Lakshminarayanan and T.V.Ramprasadhi. He is also an established music composer and has composed several musical compositions for dance which have been released commercially and has been critically acclaimed. He has composed jathis and rhythmic sequences for dance and has worked with several music CD Labels worldwide. He has also composed fusion music for Times of India and Matrix CD Labels. He was awarded the title of 'Daasyam Swaralaya' by Dasyam Fine Arts, Chennai. He has performed in India and abroad and has been features in many prestigious venues like the Kennedy Center, Jacobs Pillow, World Music Institute, Broadway-New York, Smithsonian, Washington DC etc. He has been on many global tours and performs with leading dancers and musicians. Sukhi has toured the US, Europe, UK, Australia, Japan and Singapore. He is one of the sought after musicians in the field of classical dance and music in India.